Prayer of Promised Messiah (as) for participants of Jalsa Salana

I conclude with the prayer that everyone who travels for [attending] this Convention that is for the sake of Allah: May Allah, the Exalted, be with him, reward him in abundant measure, have mercy on him, ease up for him his circumstances of hardship and anxiety and eliminate his anguish and grief. May He grant him freedom from every single hardship and lay open for him the ways of [achieving] his cherished goals, and raise him up, on the Day of Judgment, among those of His servants who are the recipients of His blessings and Mercy. May He be their Guardian in their absence until after their journey comes to an end. O Allah! O Sublime One and Bestower of bounties, the Ever Merciful and One Who Resolves all problems, do grant all these prayers, and grant us Victory over our opponents with scintillating signs, because You alone have all the prowess and power. Ameen! Ameen!!

Etiquette at Jalsa Salana

(In the light of instructions by Hazrat Khalifatul Masih V atba)

- The days of Jalsa should be spent in the remembrance of Allah, reciting Durood and regular performance of Salat.
- Greet each other with smiles. If you had any rancor, end them with smiles in these three days. Secondly, spread good words and urge others to perform good deeds and tell them to desist from bad practices. After all, that is the prime purpose of Jalsa Salana. Those who come to attend Jalsa, must participate in it fully and instead of roaming about aimlessly, they should derive the maximum benefit from the program.
- If any guests find a shortfall, they should gently draw attention of the workers to it. There is no need to get angry. The arrangements are large scale and there are bound to be some deficiencies. They should be tolerated and overlooked.
- The hosts must perform their duties of hospitality in a pleasant manner and continue to do so as long as the hospitality period continues. It is not commendable that the workers disappear immediately after the Jalsa is over and those in charge are left in embarrassment. Perform your duties diligently and honestly.
- If workers find a guest angry, they should apologize politely and try to remove and solve his difficulty. Remember! You should never speak to your guests harshly or discourteously.
- Our aim should be to honor and serve our guests, and we should serve them.
